To whom it may concern:

This is to recommend The Internet Presence, LLC and its founder, Mike O. Rock, as a knowledgeable, hard-working, and technically sound web designer and web optimizer. Specifically, this company can improve an entrepreneur's presence and visibility online at reasonable cost. It has done do for us and has given us an opportunity to grow aggressively to the next level.

Recently, Mike has worked with me to improve the revenues and profitability on our new website by several hundred percent over the last year alone.

I believe The Internet Presence, LLC., can be a significant boost to companies seeking to improve their online presence. I am happy to recommend them.

All my personal best,
